'HAPPY TEACHERS' DAY'

Without a Guru's blessings or without a mentor to show the difference between right and wrong, we will be just lifeless structures without soul. In growing years, the only person other than our parents we admire and respect the most are our teachers. Because, the most life experiences are learnt in classrooms. And, in these difficult times, with the School closed due to COVID, teachers have transformed their ways to teach in digital mode. They have never failed to give extra consideration to each and every learner.

Sagarians celebrated Teachers' Day with great gusto and gaiety through digital platform. They performed scintillating dance and music numbers for their loving teachers to acknowledge their love and support. Let's catch some glimpses.

My Dear Colleagues,

On the eve of Teachers' Day, I wish to reach out to you to express my sincere admiration for your unwavering commitment to providing the best possible home schooling to our students in these challenging times. In doing so, you have yet again raised the bar of quality education imparted by us that has indeed become our hallmark. A special mention for those in administration who are the backbone of this institution. Our Tiny Tot teachers have a special place in our hearts as our staff children are nurtured by you. Our SOP department has been doing commendable work with the neighbourhood community and sensitising both our students and colleagues to this vital responsibility.

Not many careers enjoy the status accorded to teaching wherein a day in the year is dedicated to appreciate and salute those in the profession. As a guru and a teacher, you are the primary source of inspiration for the taught. Your influence continues well beyond the lessons and the classroom.

In the worlds of Aristotle-

'Those who educate children well are more to be honoured than they who produce them; for these only gave them life, those the art of living well'.

True words indeed-I salute your dedication and commitment!

This is also a day to remember our gurus, those who inspired us, our mentors. My Teachers' Day message will be incomplete without remembering the most important mentor of my life Our Founder Dr. Vidya Sagar. He was my most learned and patient teacher and I attribute whatever I could achieve to him, his motivation, his inspiration. For me and the colleagues who had the privilege of working under him, he inspired us with his three golden qualities - Honesty, Hard Work and Humility! Dear Colleagues, hold these three mantras tightly close to you and success will be yours!

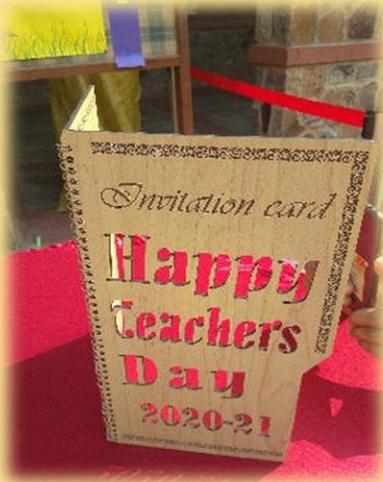

Tomorrow, you will particularly miss the physical presence and love your students would have showered on you through special arrangements they would have put together. But I am sure they will still express their affection online, trust you will enjoy, with fun and laughter, the digital celebrations & campus arrangements made specially for you! Those of you who are away from campus with your families, enjoy the day with your loved ones.

I will be remembering you all fondly. Wishing you a wonderful Teachers' Day!

Sincerely yours,

Sharmistha Julka

The pandemic didn't deter Sagarians from making their teachers feel extraordinary and celebrated. They were surely remote by distance, but not at all by heart.

Beloved Teachers,
Thank you for your relentless efforts and sheer guidance in these difficult times.
