Diwali Bash!

'Diwali is the festival of lights and joy. It is a time to forget all the negativity of the past and instead reflect on the wisdom you have gained and welcome a new beginning.'

Lights decked up Rosemary Hall and earthen lamps dotted the School Foyer. Sagarians celebrated Diwali with the same fervor and excitement. Like every year in the Pre-Diwali party there was something of everybody's taste. Children pranced in their exclusive Fun Party hosted by Karanpreet Singh, class XII wherein adults savoured themselves with delightful games hosted by Mr. & Mrs. Gursimran Singh.

Couple games, Fancy Dress and a lot more in this edition. Keep your eyes glued and seats fastened while going through this enchanting publication.

Rendition of enchanting Sanskrit Shlokas by Dr. Indra Deo Mehta

Musical welcome by Mr. Prem Narayan Upadhyay

Couple Game: Tie My Hair

Wives were asked to tie knots of their spouse's hair.

The couple with maximum knots tied in a minute was the winner.

Just two more....We shall be the winners.

Let the judges count the number of rubber bands instead of knots.

Perfect Symmetrical pattern.

I shall make a Jigsaw pattern.

Count the knots, who has the maximum?

Dressing Up : My Prettiest Dress

Tiny tots flaunted their beautiful and creatively designed outfits on the platform.
